Eno Webinar - Understanding How Women Travel Tuesday, January 28, 2020 from 12 to 12:30 pm Pacific Online

What are the needs and experiences of women traversing LA County? LA County Metro recently released a report, "Understanding How Women Travel," in a first-of-its-kind effort to answer this question. Developing from Metro's Women and Girls Governing Council, this study aimed to collect data and offer findings that can help improve women's safety and comfort on transit and attract and retain women to the Metro system. In this webinar, panelists will discuss the origin of the project, the methods used, and the key findings from the study.

Speakers are Chelsea Richer, with Fehr & Peers, and Alice Grossman with Eno.

ITE Western District Student Leadership Summit 2020
January 31 through February 2, 2020
USC and UCLA Campuses

At the intersection of entertainment and traffic congestion, there is Los Angeles. It is the perfect location for the 7th Annual Institute of Transportation Engineers (ITE) Student Leadership Summit to take place in 2020. With the Olympic Games on the horizon, Los Angeles has been planning and investing in transportation projects throughout the city, and we couldn't be more excited about the future of the industry here in LA. We are excited to bring together two exceptional universities to host this community of transportation professionals and show them what our city is about.

UCLA and USC are proud to host the 2020 Student Leadership Summit. Join us at USC for an evening of networking and entertainment on Friday, and then come out to UCLA for conference activities!

Professionals and students, please click below for more information and to register.
