Nate Kaplan West Coast State Director, GORAIL

Nate Kaplan

Seasoned public affairs leader drawing from a unique cross-sector and interdisciplinary approach to problem solving.

Nate Kaplan has been an active player on the political scene from coast to coast, with a background in local, state and federal elections. At the age of 24, Kaplan ran for the office of state representative in his hometown in Central Massachusetts and after a landslide victory, he became the youngest candidate in that district's history to receive a major party nomination.

Lunch will be served !
